Dear Parents/Carers,

I am writing to share a very important announcement. The Deputy Headteacher, Mrs Sian Hosmer, will be leaving Haselworth Primary School at the end of the academic year. The fantastic news is that she is moving on to be the Headteacher of Crofton Hammond Infant School, a well-deserved promotion.

Mrs Hosmer has worked at Haselworth for many years gaining promotion from class teacher to her current role. She has been instrumental in the success of our school and in raising standards for all pupils. Her leaving is going to be very emotional for all concerned, particularly her.

Personally, I would like to thank Mrs Hosmer for her dedication and commitment to the children of Haselworth Primary School, I know she will be a fabulous Headteacher and Crofton Hammond Infant School is lucky to be getting such a talented leader. I know that all the parents and carers would like to join me in wishing her good luck and happiness in her new role.

The recruitment process for a new Deputy Headteacher has already started and I shall update you when I have further information.

Best wishes

Mrs N. Jones
Headteacher
